

Do you need research help? Consult the guide below.

Research Help

If you wish to speak to a librarian, you can:

1. Go to Gabriele Library and ask the librarian sitting at the reference desk (labeled “Research Help”) for assistance. If there is no librarian there, go to the circulation desk and ask to speak to a reference librarian.
2. Call the reference librarians at 484-323-3829.
3. Email the reference librarians at reference@immaculata.edu.

If you wish to consult online research guides, you can:

1. Click on the “Research Guides” link from the Gabriele Library homepage. There are a variety of guides that can help you with your citations, conducting research in various subject areas, and finding full-text articles, to name a few.
2. Click on the “Tutorials” link from the Gabriele Library homepage. There are a number of tutorials that will walk you through the research process and navigating the library website.
3. Click on the “Citing Sources” link from the Gabriele Library homepage for citation help.